PAYMENT OF FEES:

Fees are payable first week of each month. If paid later than that, the amount accrues an interest of 25%. Failure for the trainee/sponsor to pay fees altogether will result in legal action which will be at his/her expense. Should the sponsor be facing any financial difficulties, the school reserves the right to be given a notice period of thirty (30) days. Failure to do so will result in Legal action. Absenting oneself from lectures does not excuse them from paying the full tuition fees for that month unless prior notice has been given with reasons why he/she cannot attend. In common with normal professional practice, refund of tuition fees is left to the director's consent.

POSTPONEMENT: The School reserves the right to postpone any course they may offer. If the student is unable to attend the course on the agreed date, he/she must ask for a postponement so that the School can arrange a mutually acceptable starting date. The School cannot guarantee to maintain the fee at its present rate and reserves the right to levy the fee ruling at the actual commencement date.

WITHDRAWALS: TRAINEES wishing to withdraw from the course will only be allowed to do so in cases of emergency or on receipt of three months' notice in writing with the trainee paying the full fees for the notice period.

BOOKS: Books and uniforms will not be issued unless all payments are up-to-date.
